

Agenda for 25.11.16

Sixth Form

1.45 to 2.15	CV Preparation and Analysis Presented by Ginette Baker (former human resources officer at Sainsbury's).	Ginette will go through how potential employers short list CVs. They will offer some useful hints in your preparation for the job market.
2.15 to 2.45	Cordon Bleu Presented by Abigail Crawley. Abigail is the Assistant Student Liaison Executive.	Courses at Cordon Bleu prepare you for work in the following areas: hotel and restaurant management, sommelier, health and nutrition (dietician), tourism and marketing https://www.cordonbleu.edu/programmes/en For more than a century, Le Cordon Bleu has enabled aspiring culinary professionals to turn their ambitions into reality. By graduating with Le Cordon Bleu, you'll become part of a great tradition of excellence, with credentials that will set you apart from the competition in a demanding and changing industry.
2.45 to 3.15	Edge Hotel School Presented by Emma Powell. Emma is the Operations Manager.	Courses at Edge Hotel School prepare the student for hotel management. This includes running your own boutique hotel. epowell@edgehotelschool.ac.uk
	MHLP Accounting Presented by one of their Human Resource Officers and one of their apprentices	Accountants audit firms, advise on tax and undertake a variety of roles in business. Careers include work for accounting firms, banks and business and often involve a great deal of travel. Accountants are some of the better paid professionals. MHLLP offers apprenticeships to become a chartered accountant. This is open to students after A level or after a degree course.

